

Regarding the Morse Code requirement in the Amateur Radio Service

As a licensed Amateur Radio Operator for nearly 40 years, I support rules which provide the following:

1. Access to HF frequencies, including some CW-only frequencies such as the Novice sub-bands, without the need for passing a Morse Code test.
2. Retention of some CW-only frequencies which are restricted to operators who have passed a Morse test.

John Musselman
WB6UHF